The Rwanda Forum

Saturday 27 March 2004
9.00am - 8.00pm

To mark the tenth anniversary of the genocide in Rwanda, Never Again, in conjunction with the Imperial War Museum, will be holding a one-day forum on responses to the genocide in Rwanda.

The Forum will create a space to remember, to reflect and to think about the future of conflict prevention in our global society.

Speakers include:
Lt General Romeo Dallaire, Force Commander of the UN Assistance Mission for Rwanda; Raymond Mbalindwa, Rwandan poet; Rt Hon Clare Short, MP; Linda Melvern, journalist and author of A People Betrayed; Ambassador Adama Dieng, Registrar International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda; Robert Cooper, Director of External Affairs, European Union; Professor William Schabas, Director of the Irish Centre for Human Rights; Véronique Tadjo, writer and artist.

Tickets £75, IWMM and concessions £50. A limited number of places are available to students for £15. Conference pack, refreshment breaks, lunch and early evening drinks reception are included in the price. To book your place, please contact the Box Office on 020 7416 5439 (weekdays 10.00am - 5.00pm). Please book early to avoid disappointment. There are only 150 delegate places available.
