Designing for Hearts and Minds: The Crafting of Slavery Histories at the International African American Museum

Paul Williams
paulwilliams@raany.com
"We always catch a lot of turtles there."

Dem chillun binnuh nyam all we rice.
"Those children were eating all our rice."

'E tell'um say 'e haffuh do'um
“He told him that he had to do it."

Duh him tell we say dem duh faa'muh.
"He's the one who told us that they are farmers."

De buckruh dey duh 'ood duh hunt tuckrey.
"The white man is in the woods hunting turkeys."

Enty duh dem shum dey?
"Aren't they the ones who saw him there?"
I AM OF AFRICAN DESCENT BODY IN PAIN